Upon entering from the stern, you'll find a door to your right leading into the boat. The first room is the bedroom, where the heating system is conveniently housed in a cupboard to your left. In front of the cupboard sits a double bed, complemented by a nearby radiator and two windows that allow natural light to fill the space.

Moving forward, the bathroom features a clean, white tiled finish, a modern square sink, and a cupboard beneath for storage. The shower is enclosed with sleek sliding doors, offering both practicality and style.

Next is the galley, designed with light-coloured tiles and cabinetry that create a bright and airy atmosphere. There is ample storage, including overhead cupboards above the cooker, making this space both functional and pleasant to cook in.

The final room is the saloon, which continues the airy feel of the boat. It includes a stove for cosy evenings and leads to steps that take you out onto the bow, perfect for enjoying the outdoors.

Aurora is a charming vessel with a welcoming feel throughout. Whether you're looking for a live aboard or a leisure cruiser, she's ready to cast off on your next adventure.
