Goshawk provides plenty of seating, making her ideal for summer trips along the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal. The boat's design includes a sheltered cockpit and a cabin with seating that can be converted into sleeping accommodation.

On the right-hand side, there is an enclosed area suitable for use as a temporary toilet with a cassette unit or for additional storage. On the left, there's a unit that includes a cupboard for storing essentials and could be utilised to provide a galley area.
