Nantwich Canal Centre

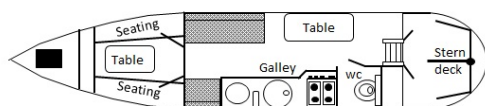

A 33ft c1994 Tyler-Wilson cruiser stern narrowboat.
Available from 1st October 2026.

This charming fleet day boat offers a practical and inviting layout, making it an ideal choice for leisurely days on the water, family outings or relaxed cruising with friends. Designed with comfort and ease of use in mind, the boat provides everything needed for an enjoyable day afloat, while making excellent use of the available space.

Upon descending the stern steps, you enter the interior of the boat, with the WC conveniently positioned on the left-hand side. Opposite, on the right-hand side, is a small table area, providing a useful space for drinks, meals or general use while on board. Continuing forward, you reach the well-equipped galley, which comprises a microwave, four-burner hob, sink and a selection of cupboard storage, providing useful facilities for preparing refreshments and meals during your time on the water.

Adjacent to the galley is a comfortable bench seating area on the right-hand side, offering a pleasant indoor space to sit and relax. The layout provides a sociable and practical interior, with ample opportunity to enjoy the boat whatever the weather.

Moving forward through the doors, you step out onto the exterior bow seating area, which is a particularly appealing feature of the boat. The bow provides a spacious and sociable area for passengers to sit and enjoy the surroundings, with a table positioned centrally. A cover is also provided over the seating area, offering welcome shelter and making the space suitable for use in a variety of weather conditions.
