Inside, Lady Carpenter offers a well-laid-out living space designed for comfort and practicality. She features a double bed with generous storage underneath, making her ideal for longer stays or relaxing weekend escapes. The galley kitchen is a decent size and comes equipped with a sink, fitted units, and a fridge freezer – perfect for everyday living and cooking onboard. A multi-use stove located in the saloon provides warmth throughout the boat, creating a cosy atmosphere during cooler months. The toilet is a simple and easy-to-maintain Porta Potti. Additionally, Lady Carpenter is fitted with two solar panels, helping to keep onboard power topped up for a more self-sufficient cruising experience.

The boat's interior remains functional and usable and with a bit of exterior cosmetic care, this charming vessel has the potential to shine once again. She comes with a valid Boat Safety Scheme (BSS) certificate until March 2026.

Lady Carpenter offers plenty of potential for someone with a bit of vision and enthusiasm. Whether you're looking for a restoration project, a floating getaway, or a more permanent home on the water, she's a solid base to start from.
