A 57ft 2011 Collingwood 4 berth cruiser stern narrowboat

Come and take a look at Potteries, a truly characterful narrowboat that blends a traditional wooden interior with a striking, artistic exterior.

Stepping aboard from the cruiser stern, you're immediately welcomed into a well-equipped galley. This space includes a cooker with grill, microwave, four-burner hob, generous work surfaces, and a sink with drainer.

Moving forward past the side hatch, you'll find the inviting saloon area. It features ample seating that easily converts into a temporary double bed for guests, along with two lounge chairs and a cosy wood burner tucked into the corner.

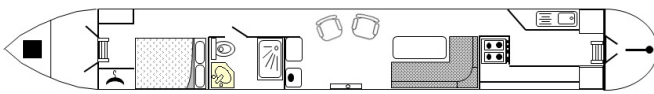

The shower room is thoughtfully laid out and well presented, offering a freestanding basin, cassette toilet, heated towel rail, and a corner shower.

At the bow, the master bedroom provides a peaceful retreat, complete with a double bed and an impressively spacious wardrobe.

Fully equipped and full of charm, this narrowboat has everything you need to enjoy memorable canal adventures on the waterways.

A Boat Safety Certificate is valid until March 2029.
