A 58ft 1997 Pat Buckle Boats 6 berth semi-traditional stern narrowboat

Spellbound is a very neatly presented semi-traditional stern narrowboat, finished in an attractive blue exterior and offering a practical, well-thought-out layout with everything required for comfortable cruising on the canal network.

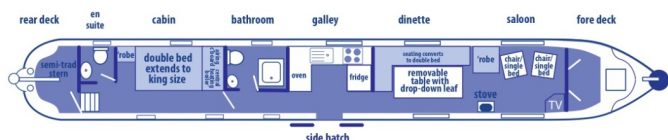

Stepping aboard, you are welcomed into a cosy double bedroom featuring a comfortable fixed double berth, an en-suite, overhead cupboards, a porthole providing natural light, and a radiator for year-round comfort.

Moving forward, the shower room is well equipped with a drop-through toilet, wash basin, towel rail, and a shower with bi-fold door, along with handy shelving for toiletries.

The fully fitted galley is ideal for onboard living and offers a sink with drainer, four-burner hob, cooker, microwave, fridge, generous work surfaces for food preparation, and shelves for storage and display. Open-plan to the galley is a sociable dinette area with ample seating and a long table, which easily converts into an additional double bed when required.

Flowing seamlessly from the dinette, the saloon provides a welcoming relaxation space with two comfortable seats that can be converted into two temporary single berths. You will find ample radiators throughout the boat ensure warmth and comfort in all seasons.

Glazed doors leading onto the bow deck allow plenty of natural light to flood the interior, creating an open and airy feel which is perfect for summer cruising.
