

Volusia

Alvechurch Marina

£35,000.00

A 57ft 2005 Jonathan Wilson 4 berth traditional stern narrowboat.

Volusia is a charming traditional stern narrowboat looking to have new adventures with a new owner!

As you enter from the stern there is the engine room, perfect for storing boating paraphernalia or personal belongings. Further steps take you down into the double bedroom with a bed with storage underneath and a storage cupboard.

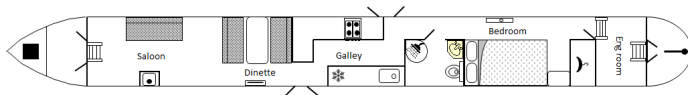

After the bedroom there is a bathroom. This is fitted with a vanity unit, toilet and a screened shower cubicle.

A beautifully appointed galley follows. With its lovely stone tiled floor, the galley comes equipped with sink, washing machine, fridge and a freestanding cooker with a screen cover over the hob. There is also plenty of work top space and under counter storage. A whimsically decorated side hatch can also be opened for extra ventilation.

The last area is an open plan dinette and saloon. Its rich wooden flooring and log burning stove gives this area a cosy feel. The dinette can be converted into a double berth when required.

In addition to the log burner, the boat has electric radiators throughout.
